MESSAGES FROM THE GOVERNOR

In accordance with Article VI, Section 11, of the Oklahoma Constitution, Enrolled House Bill 1031 has become law without the Governor's signature and has been filed with the Oklahoma Secretary of State on May 1, 2025.

I do so with serious reservations—not because of the bill's contents, but because of the broken process it represents. Sunset provisions are supposed to ensure that government doesn't grow by default. They are meant to prompt accountability, not automatic renewals.

Yet year after year, sunset bills are passed in rote fashion, with little debate, no meaningful scrutiny, and no tough questions. It has become a ritual of rubber-stamping—not governance. That's not acceptable.

To be clear, this is not about any one occupational license, agency, board, or commission. Some may be performing well. But given the extraordinarily large number of licenses, agencies, boards, and commissions, the Legislature has a responsibility to justify each reauthorization, not simply assume it.

Once again, I am calling on the Legislature to take sunset reviews seriously—to ask hard questions, reject autopilot governance, and restore real oversight. Government will always grow unless elected leaders step in to stop it.

For these reasons, I am allowing House Bill 1031 to become law without my signature.

In accordance with Article VI, Section 11, of the Oklahoma Constitution, Enrolled House Bill 1032 has become law without the Governor's signature and has been filed with the Oklahoma Secretary of State on May 1, 2025.

Yet year after year, sunset bills are passed in rote fashion, with little debate, no meaningful scrutiny, and no tough questions. It has become a ritual of rubber-stamping—not governance. That's not acceptable.

To be clear, this is not about any one occupational or professional license, agency, board, or commission. Some may be performing well. But given the extraordinarily large number of licenses, agencies, boards, and commissions, the Legislature has a responsibility to justify each reauthorization, not simply assume it.

Once again, I am calling on the Legislature to take sunset reviews seriously—to ask hard questions, reject autopilot governance, and restore real oversight. Government will always grow unless elected leaders step in to stop it.

The State's myriad occupational and professional licensing entities illustrate the problem with rubber-stamping sunset extensions. Each license is governed by a different agency, board, or commission, often with its own staff, overhead and administrative costs, and the like. Other states, like Utah, have consolidated the administration of licenses to a single state agency—a one-stop shop for license issuance and renewals. Experts estimate that a similar reform in Oklahoma would save taxpayers tens of millions of dollars annually. Sunset reviews are a prime opportunity to take up reforms such as this—indeed, they are designed to force an analysis of whether the license, agency, board, or commission is still necessary and whether it is being administered properly—but only if taken seriously by the legislature.

For these reasons, I am allowing House Bill 1032 to become law without my signature.
